

Next Egret/Egret+ workshop in Clermont-Ferrand, France, 1-4 April 2019, final schedule.

Organizers: UCA & Echodia - Paul Avan, Fabrice Giraudet, Laurence Chauvet, Mélanie Rigal & Vanessa Tixier (UCA European Affairs Office).

Mandatory attendance to presentations for all EGRET & EGRET+ PhDs. Some contents will be completed later (detailed schedule of the business-modelling lectures by Nadine Galfe; locations of dinners and social event, list of ESR presenters from #1 to #25)

Of Note, the airport is rather far away from the city centre and poorly connected, except by taxicab.

Monday 1 April 2019: check-in at the hotels (for ESRs, Maison Internationale Universitaire, MIU, 9 rue Kessler, for PIs and partners, Comfort Hôtel 18 Boulevard Winston Churchill)

8:00 – 9:30 pm: Dinner for those already arrived @ the restaurant Le Petit Marché, inside Comfort Hôtel, 18 boulevard Winston Churchill (it is recommended to use the tram – line A-, from MIU to the restaurant and back, as the walk, although rather short, is not very interesting – near MIU, the tram stop is 'Universités', direction 'Pardieu Gare', to stop ' St Jacques Loucheur', the restaurant is right there)

Tuesday 2 April 2019: working sessions and lunch at the MIU

8:30 am: Welcome, registration

ESR presentation schedule (6 min talk, maximum 12 min including discussion – in no case a talk will be allowed to exceed 7 min)

Committee: Prs. Bacin, Lobaccaro, Malfreyt, plus Paul Avan and Fabrice Giraudet

Reminder: A short presentation is expected. Several members of the committee are not specialists of your domain, yet you must attract their attention and help them grasp the meaning of your project, as if you were applying for a grant extension. Emphasis should be put on prospects, as you are likely already planning for the next stage of your career. If one prospect seems the most exciting, even if it stems from only one of your PhD projects, please feel free to set the focus only on it.
